

SEEKING WISDOM AND REVELATION

Prayer & Consecration

MARCH 23 - 28, 2015

We will ask for wisdom, which has to do with the ability to make the right decision at the right time with the information at hand, but we must also recognize that we need revelation as well. Revelation has to do with a disclosure and unveiling of what has been hidden. It is as if someone has taken the covers off and you can see clearly now.

Watchman Née described the importance of revelation as the following, "If we seek for many things concerning God outwardly and do not acquire these things through revelation, they do not move us and do not move others. Only the revelation that is in our spirit has any spiritual usefulness. Proper fellowship with God is receiving God's revelation in our spirit. It is true that God's revelations are not frequent, but how frequently do we wait and pray for God's revelation? If we are constantly busy, how can we be guided just by revelation? Actually, if we are willing to give God the opportunity, we will have revelation frequently."

(Collected Works of Watchman Nee, The (Set 1) Vol. 13: The Spiritual Man (2), Chapter 6, by Watchman Nee)

We need revelation frequently. So, as we seek God and He imparts into us wisdom and revelation, we will gain a new perspective on our lives and our destiny.

So this week take time to read and meditate on the scriptures given. Find time where you can "still" yourself from the day's activities or distractions in order to meditate. For Meditation quiets our emotions and realigns our thoughts.
